

El Jardin Flower & Garden Room opened on October 2, 2013, and is a full-service florist that specializes in unique wedding and funeral arrangement. They are proud that they use local flowers as much as possible. The owner, and also the head designer, Luis Morales, was born in Coamo, Puerto Rico and raised here in Lancaster. Before El Jardin he perfected his creative talents as a visual merchandiser for J.Crew, Banana Republic and Restoration Hardware. Luis is a proud J.P. McCaskey grad and attended Saint Francis University. He loves Lancaster for its small town charm with big city attributes, especially the theater, eclectic art and shops, a multitude of varied sophisticated restaurants, a diverse city of culture, ethnicity, religion and age. His Latino upbringing helped create the vibrant and unique style of a floral arrangement that can be found at El Jardin, as well as his strong work ethic and devotion to his clientele! In addition, being bilingual is a tremendous asset when serving the Spanish community and they can feel free to come El Jardin Flower & Garden room for all of their floral and garden needs. Luis sits on the board of the Latin American Cultural Center – LACC, a nonprofit organization that promotes and preserves the riches of the Latin American cultural heritage and shares common cross-cultural experiences. He is also an active member of the First Thursday Latino professional and entrepreneurs group that gathers together all those interested in building strong professional relationships and partnerships.
