

October 2016 Member Spotlight on AngryYoungandPoor.com presented by partner John Shuba at the October Merchant Meeting of the DID sponsored by the [Lancaster City Alliance](http://Lancaster City Alliance). Pictured, from left to right,

Angry Young & Poor Records & Clothing Store has been a Downtown Lancaster City destination for over 20 years! They specialize in punk, goth, and metal music. This includes new & used Vinyl Records (LPs & 7 inches), band tees, head to toe casual and upscale Retro Pin Up clothing, kitsch, and virtually anything else you can dream of that has to do with those music scenes. They carry many Made in the USA, UK, & Canadian independent clothing lines as well as their own line of denim, studs & spikes, and leather & vegan biker jackets. AYP will celebrate 21 years of keeping Lancaster unique on Friday Nov 25th.

They also supply TV Shows, Movies, Theater Groups, and Clothing Designers with their studs and unique clothing & ship internationally.

Whether you need a rock t-shirt, jeans, shoes, a poster, hair dye, shoes, baby clothing, or a beautifully made vintage inspired dress, AYP has it all! They offer fantastic fashion that you cannot find at the mall. They are located at 356 West Orange St on the corner of Orange & Charlotte, and can be found on the web at www.angryyoungandpoor.com
Follow them on Instagram @angryyoungandpoordotcom
And Facebook at: <https://www.facebook.com/AngryYoungandPoorcom-125592404152661/?fref=ts>