

The March 2017 Member Spotlight on LSJ Studio presented by Loryn Spangler Jones at the March Merchant Meeting of the DID sponsored by the Lancaster City Alliance.

Located in the heart of the downtown Lancaster, PA's art district, LSJ Studios is a striking 900 square foot contemporary art gallery and open studio. A combination of wide open space, natural light, clean lines and an industrial finish, this spaces promises originality and a creative edge in Lancaster's growing Art scene.

Owner and director, Loryn Spangler-Jones, has been an active member within the local art community for many years and was the Gallery Director, resident artist and lead art educator at Annex 24 in Lancaster for 5 years before making the move to open LSJ Studios in March of 2016. The studio serves as Spangler-Jones' creative space, a place for classes and a gallery for exhibiting art from around the globe.

LSJ Studios offers fresh new exhibits from March through and including December with opening receptions every First Friday. Also an active participant in Lancaster's Spring and Fall Artwalk, LSJ Studios does its part to help make downtown Lancaster City an arts destination.

LSJ Studio

110 W. King Street1 Suite 101

For more information got to: <http://lsjstudios.com/>

