

Pictured from left to right: Marshall Snively, President of Lancaster City Alliance with Megan Lefever Titter, owner of Max's Eatery, her son Max Titter, inspiration for Max's, Christina Ungaro, Supervisor at Max's and Dave Aichele, Lancaster City Alliance Director of Clean & Safe Services and Executive Director of the DID.

The June 2019 Member Spotlight on Max's Eatery, presented at the June Merchant Meeting of the DID, sponsored by the Lancaster City Alliance.

Named for Chef Titter's fun-loving and adventurous food critic son, Max's is your daily go-to and brings back the old school style of "everyday eating" with a lunch counter + diner environment. Max's is designed as an accessible "foodie" destination by re-imagining tried and true favorites with a nod to Lancaster's unique tastes. Check out their fabulous & fun menu and be sure to follow them on Facebook to learn about the latest events and on Instagram to keep up with all the shenanigans!